

The Ministers Council

Looking for something to help you be a better minister?

www.ministerscouncil.org

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

The Ministers Council

Celebrating a pastoral anniversary?

Need help planning an event for the ministry community?

www.ministerscouncil.org

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

The Ministers Council

Did you know there is a code of ethics for ministers?

www.ministerscouncil.org

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

The Ministers Council

Why a Ministers Council? The Ministers Council is an autonomous, self governing association of ministerial leaders and clergy that stands alongside other denominational members. It is fully supportive of the mission of the ABC/USA and seeks to work together in ministry with each of its denominational partners.

www.ministerscouncil.org

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

The Ministers Council

Through a Lilly Endowment grant, Ministers Council encourages the formation of Together in Ministry (TIM) groups to :

- Strengthen Individuals
- Develop new skills for ministry
- Create accountability mechanisms
- Decrease the incidence of burnout and misconduct

For more information on how you can start a TIM group in your area, contact your local Ministers Council representative at _____ or visit: www.ministerscouncil.org

The Ministers Council

The Ministers Council is that unique place within the national structure of the ABC/USA which:

- Offers leaders opportunities to articulate a distinct ministerial viewpoint, among the many denominational perspectives that need to be voiced and heard, as we work together for the growth of Christ's 'kingdom
- Serves as an advocate for its members in times of difficulty and conflict
- Is solely focused on the well-being of clergy as they engage in the ministerial calling in all of its dimensions.

www.ministerscouncil.org

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

The Ministers Council

Through a Lilly Endowment grant, Ministers Council encourages the formation of Together in Ministry (TIM) groups to

- Work to overcome the sense of personal and professional isolation
- Enrich ministerial and lay leaders' perspectives of themselves and their ministries
- Provide a supportive network of peers who will pray for one another
- Offer opportunities for disciplined focus through specific study
- Create a climate for checking in and mutual accountability
- Enhance the current network of Minister Councils as colleagues

For more information on how you can start a TIM group in your area, contact [contact for this region] [name & email or phone] or visit: www.ministerscouncil.org

The Ministers Council

Did you know...Judson Press is offering Free Shipping to members of the National Ministers Council?

Effective immediately, dues-paying members of the national Ministers Council will receive free shipping on Judson Press orders of $15.00 or more.

Members should reference code JP15 when calling to order (800-458-3766) or ordering online (www.judsonpress.com).

The Ministers Council

Our projects and programs include:

- Together in Ministry (TIM) groups
- Community of Practice (COP) training
- Compensation advocacy
- Ministerial Ethics and Standards

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

www.ministerscouncil.org

The Ministers Council

A network of colleagues,
a place to meet,
a haven on the journey,
a way to connect with the ABC,
a community of support,
an opportunity to learn and grow,
a gathering of friends,
a group to advocate for clergy,
a space for joy and fellowship.

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

www.ministerscouncil.org

The Ministers Council

Do you want the best, most accountable pastor possible?

Encourage your pastor to join The Ministers Council today!

Your contact for [this region] [name & email or phone]

www.ministerscouncil.org