SOUTH CAROLINA

Retreat or Sabbatical Option

There is a house, furnished and free, located on Lake Hartwell on the northern SC-GA border. The church intended it for furloughing missionaries, but there have been no takers for the past year. The church is open to SBC, CBF, and ABC ministers or missionaries using it. Location is convenient to UGA, Clemson, one hour from Atlanta. It might make a good place of retreat and refreshing for ministers taking a sabbatical.

Jamestown, TN

PASTORAL RETREAT CABIN

By Jim Rogers, retired pastor of Jamestown United Methodist Church, Jamestown, TN

Our dear friends, Tom and Joyce Pickard, are making available without cost to Christian ministers a get-away cabin north of Jamestown for rest, relaxation and reflection.

Able to sleep up to 8 people, the cabin is fully furnished with everything except food. In keeping with the theme of privacy and tranquility, no telephone or television is provided. They ask only that the cabin be left as clean as it is found.

Located four miles from Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area and seven miles from Pickett State Rustic Park, one can enjoy as much privacy as desired. Rental horses can be obtained nearby. Situated well off a seldom traveled road, noise is usually limited to the singing of birds, deer grazing in the yard and other natural sounds. My Mollie and I spent a week there in June and were most comfortable and refreshed.

Tom and Joyce understand and appreciate the job related stress of ministers and want to give them something in return. They have asked us to assist with the scheduling. Those wishing to arrange for a few days stay or for more information may contact me at jimrogers@frontiernet.net or (931) 261-9676.
